TEN BEST DOOR Colours

Your front door sets the tone for your entire house and is an important space where colour speaks volumes. The right colour can make a design statement that is powerful, welcoming, and drop-dead gorgeous!

Like finding that perfect shade of lipstick, this is the red that commands attention in all the right ways.

With this Midas touch, your home will look like a million bucks and your neighbours will be wondering why they didn't think of it first.

Because every home deserves to be a head turner

When purple is perfect, it is downright majestic.

The secret to this classic dark green is that it is infused with black. Rich, deep, and sublime!

A friendly, earthy colour that beckons you in and helps you feel grounded.

Like a uniform or a great business suit, this colour commands respect. A door colour that says "sophisticated success".

This shade of aubergine is a fashion statement. A true haute hue!

A deep, full-bodied burgundy, as rich and robust as a fine French wine.

There's nothing seventies about this brown! A new contemporary espresso shade that is the perfect blend between black and brown.

Harmony resides here. Not too warm. Not too cold. A grey in perfect balance!
